Memo No. Repr./G-1/2017/1184-1215

Dated: 10-04-2017

Sub: University functions.

Various departments/offices of the university time to time organize functions and dignitary(ies) from outside the university are invited as Chief Guest. It has been observed that a number of officers/employees welcome the Chief Guest with the bouquet which is unnecessary financial burden on the university. The worthy Vice-Chancellor has ordered that in future only one bouquet will be given to the Chief Guest to welcome him and concerned employees who are invited in the function may only attend the same. In case, the Chief Guest is within from the university officers then there is no need to welcome with bouquet and the function should be organized in a very economical and normal way.
