OFFICE ORDER

No. IPVS/2022/896-899

Dated: 06/06/2022

A meeting was held under the chairmanship of Worthy Vice-Chancellor in the O/o Vice-Chancellor Secretariat to grant one more mercy chance to the failed VLDD students for the session 2020-21. All the possibilities regarding moderation of result keeping in view of Covid-19 pandemic condition, online classes, non-availability/interrupted facilities in the rural areas, etc. were discussed. On the recommendation of the Committee, it has been ordered by the Worthy Vice-Chancellor, LUVAS that one more mercy chance be granted to the failed VLDD students and their examinations be conducted offline in the respective (failed) subject(s). A preparatory time of approximately fifteen days is given to all the 1st and 2nd year failed students of VLDD before commencement of the examinations.

The capping of examination fees for these examinations will not exceed more than rupees 2000/- (Two thousand only) as one-time measure and supplementary examination fee will be as per Rules & Regulations of Governing Diploma Courses.

Other modalities will be detailed out by the Director, IPVS in consultation with COE, LUVAS, Hisar as per the existing rules of the University.

No precedence will be taken of this relaxation in future.

Director, IPVS 6/6/2022
