The RIC discussed the above matter at length and recommended that the last/final chance for thesis submission may be granted to Mr. Aurnpreet Singh, Admn. No. 2019V46M on the sympathetic ground. The request of Mr. Aurnpreet Singh is considered as a special case and the reference of this case will not be used in future. The members of RIC are of view that the final extension may be granted to him after taking in view the mercy appeal of the student with the following conditions that

1. He has to register himself as a special case after the regular date of the registration of 6th semester with full semester fee and extension fees within seven days of issuance of order.

Agenda Item No.46 RIC-4: Request of Dr. Rakesh Kumar, Admn. No. 2020V14D regarding refund of fee in reference to CWP No. 25827.

Dr. Rakesh Kumar, Admn. No. 2020V14D could not join classes due to non-issuance of final NOC/relieving order by the department during his admission in 2nd semester of the academic session 2020-21 and he filed a case CWP No. 25827 of 2021 in the Hon'ble High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh against State of Haryana (Director-General, Department of Animal Husbandry and Dairying, Haryana, sector-2, Panchkula) and others regarding the final NOC. The Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana high court had disposed of the case vide date of decision 17.12.2021 with an expectation that respondent No. 4- University will take a lenient view qua the deposit of fee by the petitioner (i.e. Rakesh Kumar), being a government servant, he has to necessarily depend on the competent authority for requisite permission and for no fault of his he ought not be put to financial hardship by forfeiture of the fee deposited by him, while final NOC was pending.

In view of above, the RIC discussed the above matter at length, in view of the decision of Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court, it was decided to refund full fee to the petitioner (i.e. Dr. Rakesh Kumar, Admn. No. 2020V14D) which was deposited by him at the time of admission.

Afterwards, RIC recommended to place the same before the ensuing meeting of Academic Council for consideration and approval.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the Chair.

Submitted for approval, please.
