At the outset, the Chairman, welcomed all the Hon'ble members and special invitees and wished that the contribution of members in the meeting will be constructive and useful.

Thereafter, the following agenda items were discussed and the following decisions were taken thereof:

Agenda item No.53 RIC-1: Confirmation of the proceedings of 52nd meeting of the RIC held on 07.11.2022.

Confirmed.

Agenda item No.53 RIC-2: Action taken report on the proceedings of 52nd meeting of the RIC held on 07.11.2022.

Noted and approved.

Agenda Item No.53 RIC-3: Approval of revised synopsis of Dr. Rhythm, Admn. No. 2020V53M, M.V.Sc. student in the department of VPHE.

Dr. Rhythm, Admn. No. 2020V53M was admitted to M.V.Sc in 2nd semester of the Academic Session 2020-21 in the department of Veterinary Public Health and Epidemiology. Dr. (Mrs.) Renu Gupta, Sr. Disease Investigation Officer, Deptt. of VPHE was allotted as Major Advisor to the student. As per the provision contained under Rule 14.1 (a) of Chapter III of University Calendar Volume II, the synopsis of student was approved by the office of Dean, PGS vide Memo. No. Dean PGS/2022/449-52, dated 19.02.2022 before the registration of 3rd semester (i.e. 2nd sem. 2021-22). The title of the synopsis was "Detection of Helicobacter pylori in buffalo faeces in and around Hisar" and the study was planned with the following objectives:

- 1) To estimate the prevalence of Helicobacter pylori in buffalo faeces in and around Hisar region.
- 2) Isolation and characterization of Helicobacter pylori from faeces of buffalo.
- 3) Characterization of virulence genes of Helicobacter pylori.

Now, the Advisory committee of the student, due to non-presence of Helicobacter pylori in buffalo feces in and around Hisar as detected by polymerase chain reaction (PCR), has recommended following modifications in revised synopsis in its meeting held on 10.11.2022 and same has been recommended and forwarded by the Head, VPHE.

The proposed title of the revised synopsis is "Detection of Helicobacter pylori and MDR Escherichia coli in buffalo faeces in and around Hisar" and following objectives has been approved by the Advisory Committee instead of the objectives already approved.

- 1) To estimate the prevalence of Helicobacter pylori in buffalo faeces in and around Hisar region.
- 2) Isolation and characterization of Helicobacter pylori including virulence genes.
- 3) To characterize Escherichia coli isolated from buffalo faeces for antimicrobial susceptibility and presence of integrons.

Under the heading technical programme:

The following points have been added:

- Escherichia coli from a minimum of 140 buffalo fecal samples will be isolated. Isolation and identification will be carried out using standard procedures.
- The bacterial isolates will be tested for their susceptibility to different antimicrobial agents on Muller-Hinton agar through disc diffusion assay using standard procedure (Bauer et al., 1966).
- The isolates will be tested for ESBL production using standard procedure.
- Total DNA will be extracted using commercially available kit as per the instructions given by the manufacturer/other suitable method.
- The isolates will be screened and characterized for integrons especially Class 1.

Taking under consideration the above explained actualities, the case may be placed before the RIC for discussion and recommendation thereof.

Therefore, the agenda item was placed before the RIC for kind consideration and decision. The RIC discussed and recommended to approve the revised synopsis of Dr. Rhythm, Admn. No. 2020V53M, M.V.Sc. student in the department of VPHE without any relaxation in the residential requirement for the degree programme and for further consideration and approval by the Academic Council.

Further, the RIC recommended to place the matter before the Worthy Vice-Chancellor for granting necessary approval to place the same before the Academic Council in its ensuing meeting as supplementary agenda.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the Chair.

Submitted for approval, please.
